Be punctual for appointments.

Business cards are exchanged at the beginning of a meeting. Remember to give and receive the card with both hands. It is polite to look the card over and hold it while speaking.

It is considered proper to address by using Mr., Mrs., or Miss and not first names. Do not use first names unless you are invited to.

Handshaking is a warm way of greeting others regardless of racial background.

It is common courtesy to ask permission to take pictures of people, mosques or temples.

Once invited to a home and while entering a temple or mosque, remove your shoes.

Driving Tips:

- Don't run red lights.
- Don't drink and drive.
- Don't drive like you own the road; drive like you own the car.
- Never try to fit more people in the car than you have seatbelts for them to use.
- Always wear your seat belt--and make sure all passengers buckle up, too.
- Always look out for motorcyclist, by checking your blind spots.
